Problem Solving Rubric Freebie!

From Classroom Confetti

1	Student shows little evidence of understanding. Equation and/or visual do not match the problem.
2	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visual with an incorrect answer.
3	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visuals with an incorrect answer.
4	Student understands the problem. Equation and/or visuals show thought process with a correct answer.

1	Student shows little evidence of understanding. Equation and/or visual do not match the problem.
2	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visual with an incorrect answer.
3	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visuals with an incorrect answer.
4	Student understands the problem. Equation and/or visuals show thought process with a correct answer.

1	Student shows little evidence of understanding. Equation and/or visual do not match the problem.
2	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visual with an incorrect answer.
3	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visuals with an incorrect answer.
4	Student understands the problem. Equation and/or visuals show thought process with a correct answer.

1	Student shows little evidence of understanding. Equation and/or visual do not match the problem.
2	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visual with an incorrect answer.
3	Student shows some evidence of understanding using a correct equation or visuals with an incorrect answer.
4	Student understands the problem. Equation and/or visuals show thought process with a correct answer.

Thank you for downloading my product!

For more great ideas, visit:
www.classroomconfetti.com